

A night-time photograph of a tropical resort. In the center, a wooden deck with a railing is illuminated by warm lights. A green patio umbrella stands on the deck. The deck is surrounded by a body of water, possibly a pool or a lake, which reflects the lights. The background is filled with dense, dark green foliage. In the foreground, there are some out-of-focus green plants.

Poas Volcano and Doka Coffee

Duration: Half Day

Includes: Guide, transportation, entrance fee and lunch.

Difficulty Level: Medium

What to bring: Camera, comfortable clothes and hiking shoes, light jacket or poncho and binoculars.

The Poas Volcano National Park is a must visit at the region. Hike in the cloud forest and watch up close its massive crater and mystic lagoon. Also enjoy one of Costa Rica's trademarks: an authentic coffee plantation.

As one of the oldest hydro-powered wet mills in Costa Rica, this third generation coffee plantation has been voted the best coffee in the region. Find out first hand, or "cup", why Costa Rican coffee is so famous.

Our tour takes about two hours, on a walk through the farm boundaries with incredible views. We start at the first of 10 stations called Rural Setting. This station is the perfect welcome for all the information offered. We continue the tour to the Viewpoint of the Colossus, a wonderful vantage point of Poas Volcano. Without doubt, this is the ideal place to take pictures of the volcano and explain relevant data and special notes about its activity. Continuing with the hike, we will have a small break at The Lake of the Grandfather, a small lake surrounded by forest.

The most awaited station The Strawberries Tour. People are amazed walking among strawberry fields, collecting and eating, while our local guide explains every detail of this well-known fruit (a delicious experience). After eating strawberries, what better way to continue our journey than herding cows from their barns to The Milling Stalls. Each person will be able to touch and milk the cows as well as taking pictures. Our cows are definitely the stars of the activity. After milking, we will have the cheese tour in our Factory of Artisan Cheese, an opportunity see the entire process and learn more about the culture of cheese.
